

PRESS ANNOUNCEMENT

Agata Wąsowska joins Di Luccia & Partners Executive Search as Partner in Poland

Agata Wąsowska, with over twenty years of international experience in the areas of human resources management, including building and implementing recruitment strategies, has worked for both large corporations (PwC, BASF, Orbis) as well as SMEs and start-ups in Poland, Romania, Italy, Cyprus, the Netherlands, Belgium, the US and Scandinavia.

Passionate about everything that combines hard business and the so-called human skills. Focused on an innovative and agile approach, she supported organizations in achieving their business goals through organizational changes, strengthening commitment and creating agile and effective processes. She built teams diversified in terms of competencies, successfully implemented demanding recruitment projects in industries such as: finance, banking, consulting, new technologies, IT, BI, sales.

“I work with passion, I know how the right selection of talents has a huge impact on every company. The world of business is governed by its own rules, it is fast, dynamic environment and it is extremely important to understand the business and its goals well in order to present talents, who will not only be perfectly matched, but also create added value. Domenico Di Luccia and his team are charismatic, committed Partners who guarantee quality with their knowledge and attitude. It is a great honor to be part of such a team, share the same values and work ethic. Thank you very much Domenico and Aga Podkowinska for the great trust and such a great welcome to the Di Luccia & Partners Executive Search family.” declares Agata Wasowska, Partner in Poland at Luccia & Partners Executive Search.

“I am very pleased to welcome Agata to our team due to her outstanding of human and professional skills. I was immediately struck by her clarity in analyzing the candidates and the contexts of reference in which they move. I believe that Agata, due to her talents, will do very well in providing services to companies participated by private equity funds. Moreover, I believe that Poland has intellectual and technological potential, its adaptation to change and language skills create a unique talent base that empowers many international companies and organizations. I wish Agata all the success and I am sure that she will be a great asset to our Polish team!” declares Aga Podkowinska, Country Head in Poland at Luccia & Partners Executive Search.